SEE YOURSELF HERE.

It's the promise we offer rising junior or senior high students who have lost their academic way in a traditional high school setting.

Here, on the airport campus of Midlands Technical College, students explore individual career paths and earn transferable college credit while earning a high school diploma. It is the idea setting for students who have academic promise for college studies, but need the individual consideration of a non-traditional school environment.

Hates the drama.

Dying of boredom.

Doesn't get the point.

Regular high school—no. But this place gets ME.
